El Paso, Texas
Nov. 12, 1917

Mr. Chas. F. Lummis,
200 E. Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir:

I am a teacher of Spanish in a private school and have heard of a book of Spanish songs published by you. I would like to see a copy and will, if it is what I hope, use it in my classes and send you in an orders later.

You may send the book parcel post c. o. d.

Very truly,

Mrs. Lottie S. Hackler
El Paso School for Girls
El Paso, Texas

Address
P. O. Box 52 Station A.

Make order blank out.
Ship with bill mark C.O.D.; she can remit when it is